

Exceptional Education Head Teacher

Full Time Position

Are you an exceptional, dynamic and inspirational teacher who has a proven track record of initiating, managing and leading effective change? St. Luke's Academy is an inclusive School for pupils with exceptionalities, aged 3-11 with a diverse range of learning needs and we are looking for someone to be the head of our special education department.

Role

- To direct and lead Instructor of the Exceptional Education programme specializing in Dyslexia, dysgraphia, dyscalculia, executive functioning, working memory, auditory processing disorders and ADHD.
- Diagnosis and Instruction in Literacy: Ages 3-11years
- Educational Evaluation for Exceptional Children
- Assistive Technology for High Incidence Disabilities
- Techniques for Behaviour Change and Positive Behavior Support
- Special Education Instruction and Curriculum IEP for Elementary
- Collaborative Teaming in Special Education
- Implementing cutting-edge practices
- Full special education inclusion program with pull out and push in sessions
- In house and afterschool programme inclusive of educational camps in school vacations

Requirements

- 3+ years' teaching experience students with exceptionalities
- CV
- Certification from Lindamood-Bell would be preferred
- All other qualifications and licenses associated with learning challenges would be an asset
- Certificate of character
- Copy of the Biodata page of your report
- 1 Professional reference from your most recent employer
- 1 Character reference